PIVOTAL

NIKKI VALLANCE

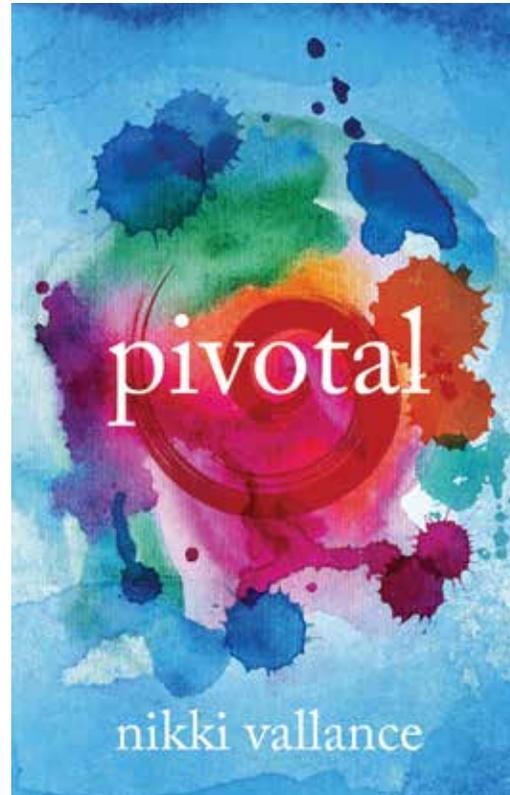

Sliding Doors meets The Versions of Us

When a mysterious bequest throws the lives of four women into chaos, they seek support from hypnotherapist, Dr Kath O'Hannon. Through a process of self-discovery, their new-found knowledge weighs heavily, as they unpick four decades of life choices, and are forced to make bold decisions about the next stage of their journeys. Accepting the offer of building a Tango School business would set them on a very different path, but first they need to tackle their past before considering stepping into an unknown future. . .

Pivotal is a split narrative, relationship mystery portraying the impact of a pivotal moment, on four women in their forties who live seemingly unconnected lives. The novel addresses the interplay of chance and destiny on our lives, and explores the common experiences and dilemmas of ordinary women, questioning the paths they have chosen over the previous decades. A story with many twists and turns, described as a mystery within a mystery.

Is life guided by self-determination or destiny? How many doors does one person unwittingly open - and close - in a lifetime? When you pass through a door, how could your life change forever? Or, do you have power over who you become through the choices you make?

MY FREEDOM DIARY & JOURNAL

JULIA KEYS AND JACQUI COLES

Created by the co-authors of best-selling self-help book, The MANScript, to help anyone who has been cheated on to let go of the emotions preventing them from moving forward with life. It is a safe place to offload thoughts without judgement or fear of recrimination, with positive affirmations, a diary section, and step-by-step guidance; with encouragement to write down goals, thoughts, worries, emotions, fears, and plans for the future.

Journalling is a creative strategy—used by Julia Keys—that was instrumental in the healing process, following her marriage breakdown from TV presenter, Richard Keys. It's also a strategy that is highly recommended in The MANScript. By using the journal in your own way, at your own pace, it provides an opportunity to heal and thrive, increasing your awareness of who you are and what you want from life. 'My Freedom Diary & Journal' will help you become stronger and more secure in your own identity, encouraging you to forge a path to identify and achieve what you desire from life.

IN THE FAST LANE

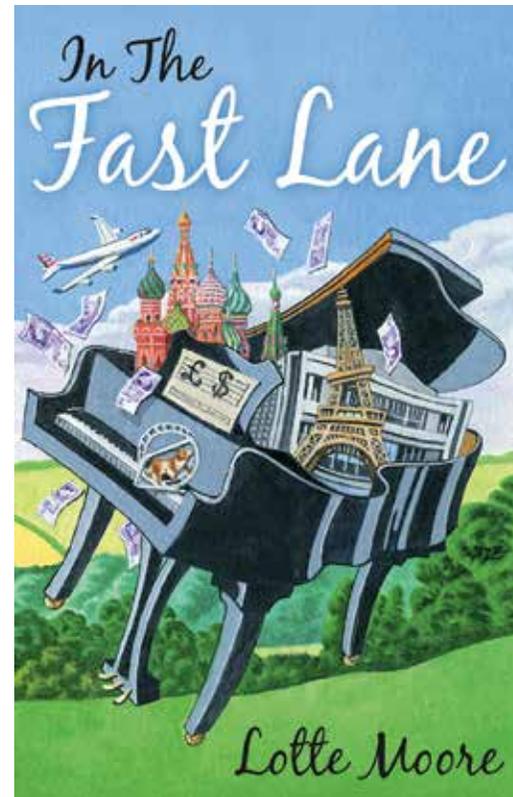

LOTTE MOORE

In the Fast Lane is a story for those of us trying, sometimes failing, to keep all the juggling balls in the air! A complex web of family relationships and life challenges is vividly weaved by Lotte Moore, who exposes both the craziness and triviality of life 'in the fast lane'. Marriage breakdowns and corruption, catastrophe and chaos, romance and relationships, this is an emotional, moving portrait of the ups and downs of family life, and poses the question - can we ever be truly happy living in the fast lane?

In The Fast Lane, written by prolific 82-year-old author Lotte Moore, is an emotional, moving portrait of the surprising benefits of suddenly being needed again in old age.

*Nominated for the People's Book Prize 2018

*PR for this author/book includes Daily Express, Chiswick Life, Absolutely Chiswick, BBC Radio, CUB Magazine, Bolder Magazine.

About the Author

Lotte has written more than 25 published books for children yet only started writing aged 70. In the Fast Lane is her first adult book. Lotte dedicates her time, freely, every week, to read her stories to children in pre-schools and primary schools, and she's always particularly busy around World Book Day.

Having grown up during World War Two, she has seen and experienced a lot in her life, and continues to build contemporary fictional characters and worlds that reflect what is happening right now in society. Lotte lives with her husband in Chiswick, West London.
